

Equality Advisory & Support Service

Welcome to the EASS

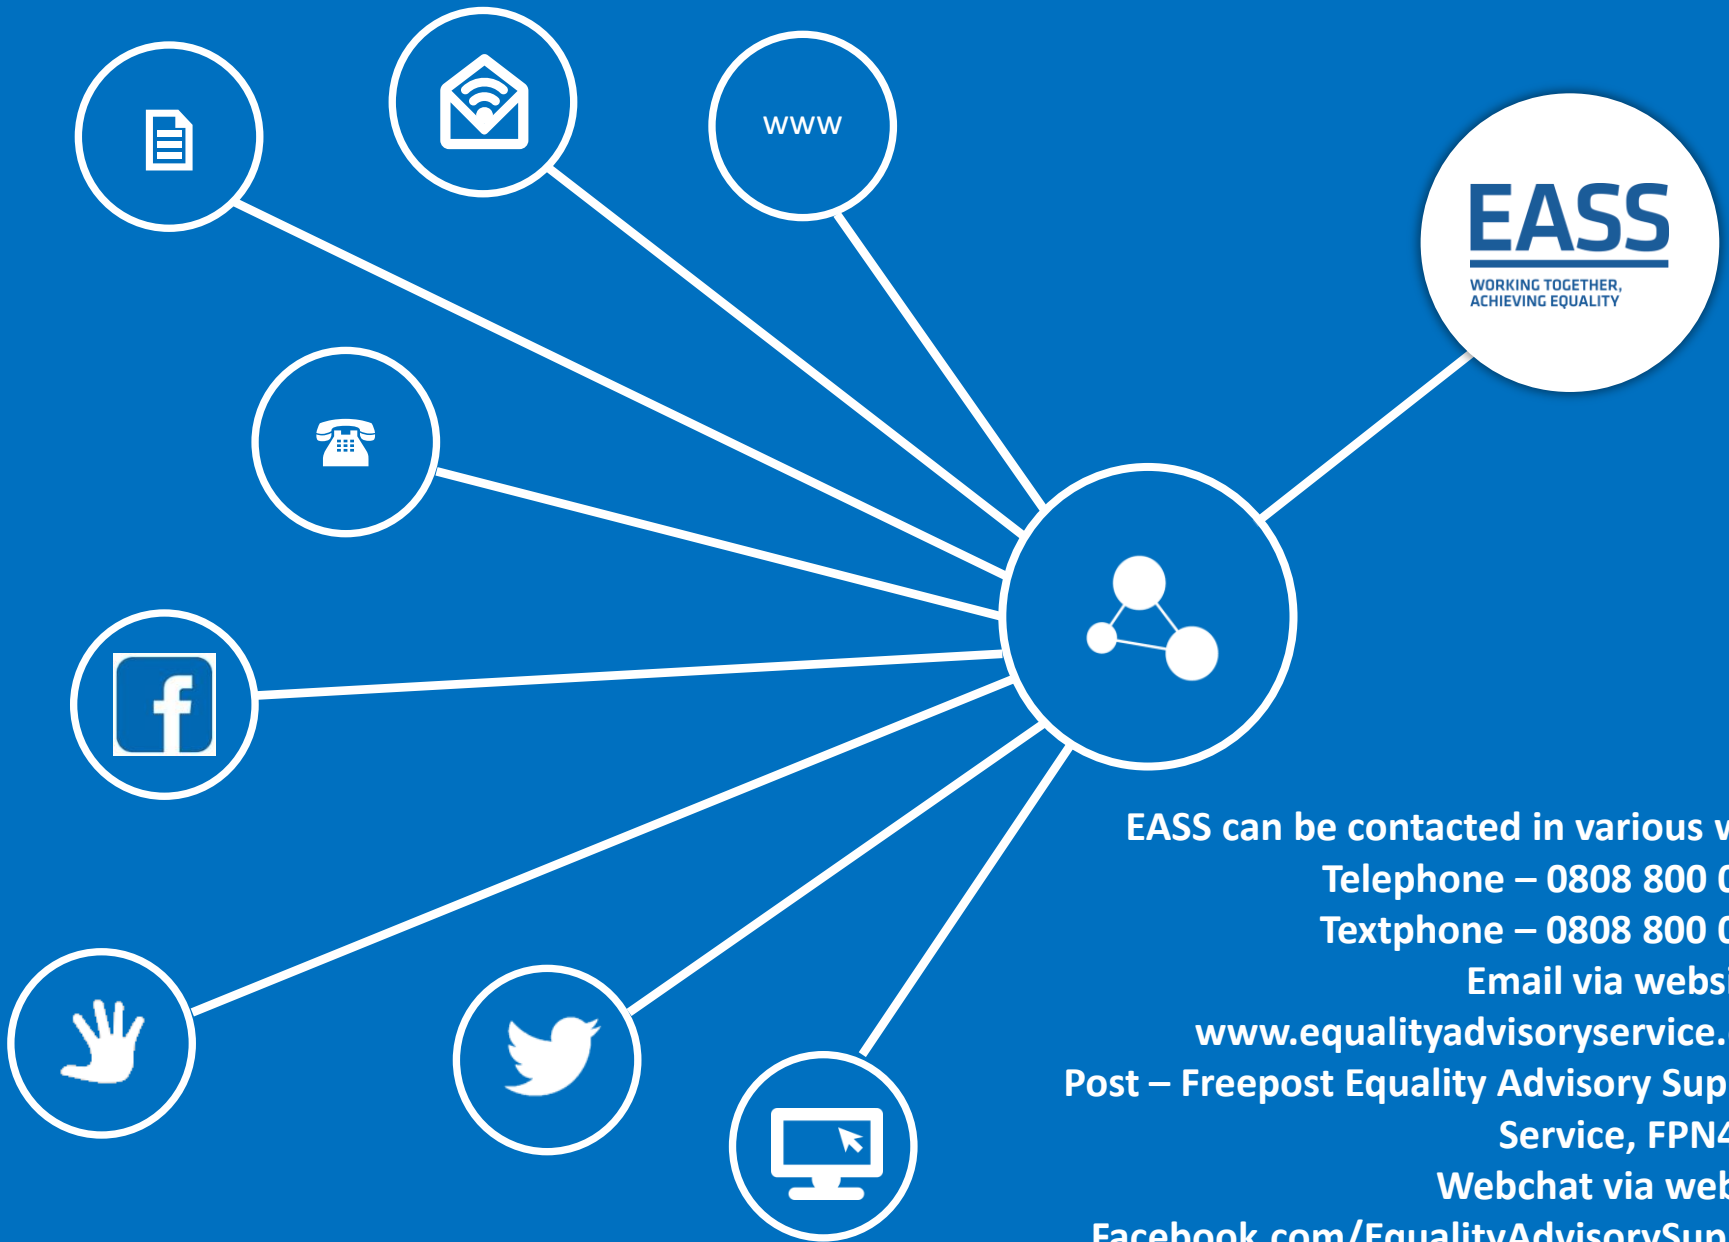

EASS opened doors on 1st October 2012.

To date, over 145,500 contacts with the service.

Individuals contact the service when they have a possible discrimination or human rights issue.

Expert advice, guidance and support using Equality Act and Human Rights Act

EASS is a government contract supported by the Government Equalities Office.

EASS can be contacted in various ways
Telephone – 0808 800 0082
Textphone – 0808 800 0084
Email via website –
www.equalityadvisoryservice.com
Post – Freepost Equality Advisory Support
Service, FPN4431
Webchat via website
Facebook.com/EqualityAdvisorySupport
Twitter @EASSHelpline
BSL available via website

Aims of EASS

EASS provides free advice and support to members of the public facing discrimination issues.

When an individual contacts the service, expert advisers will diagnose their issue and suggest initial action plans to begin a complaint.

Should the initial complaint not resolve the issue, EASS will then work with an individual to find informal ways to reach a positive outcome. The aim is to try and avoid having to consider costly legal action.

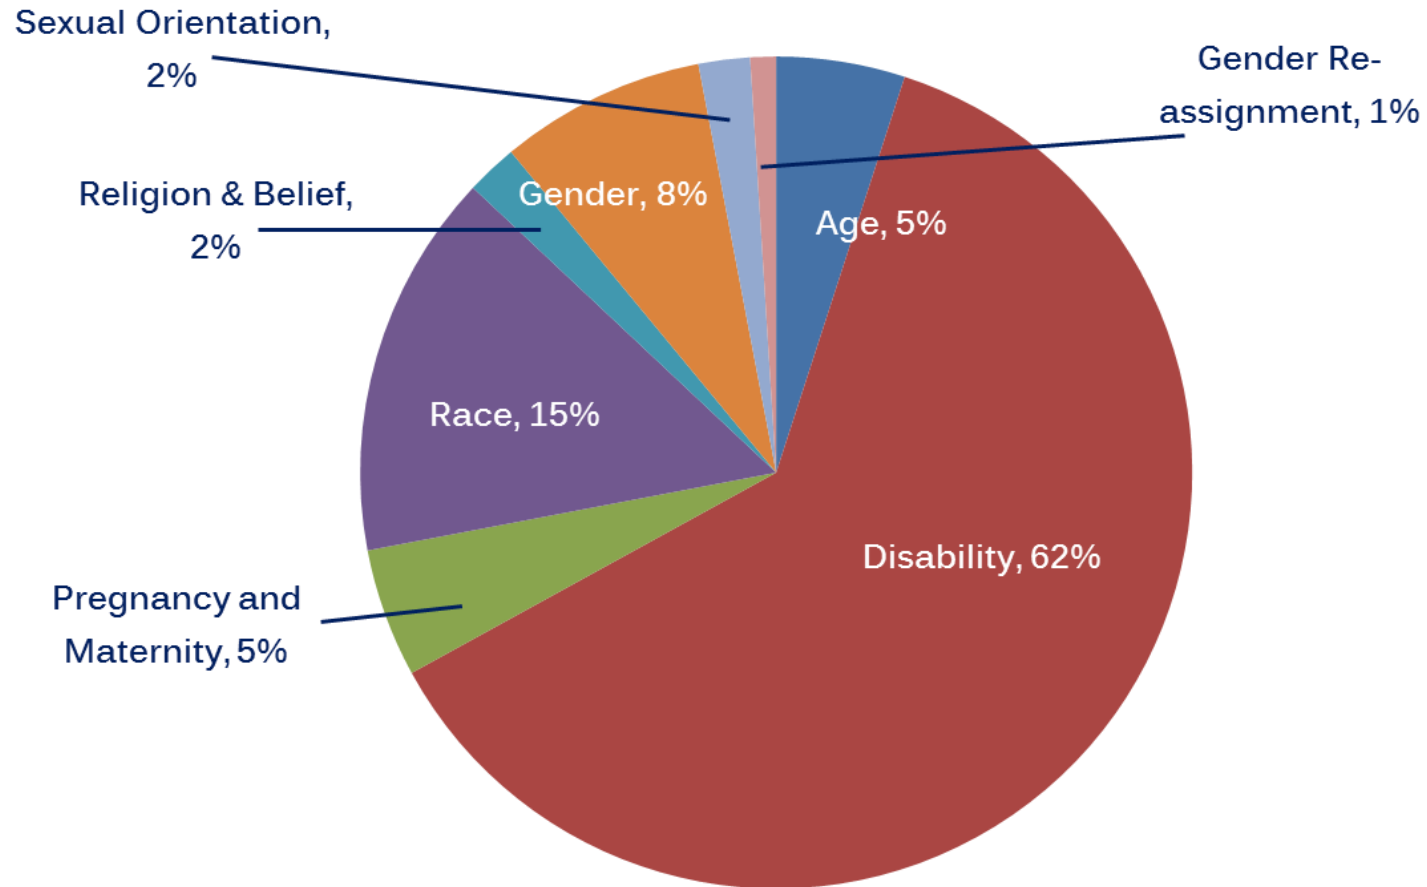

EASS is not able to provide legal representation.

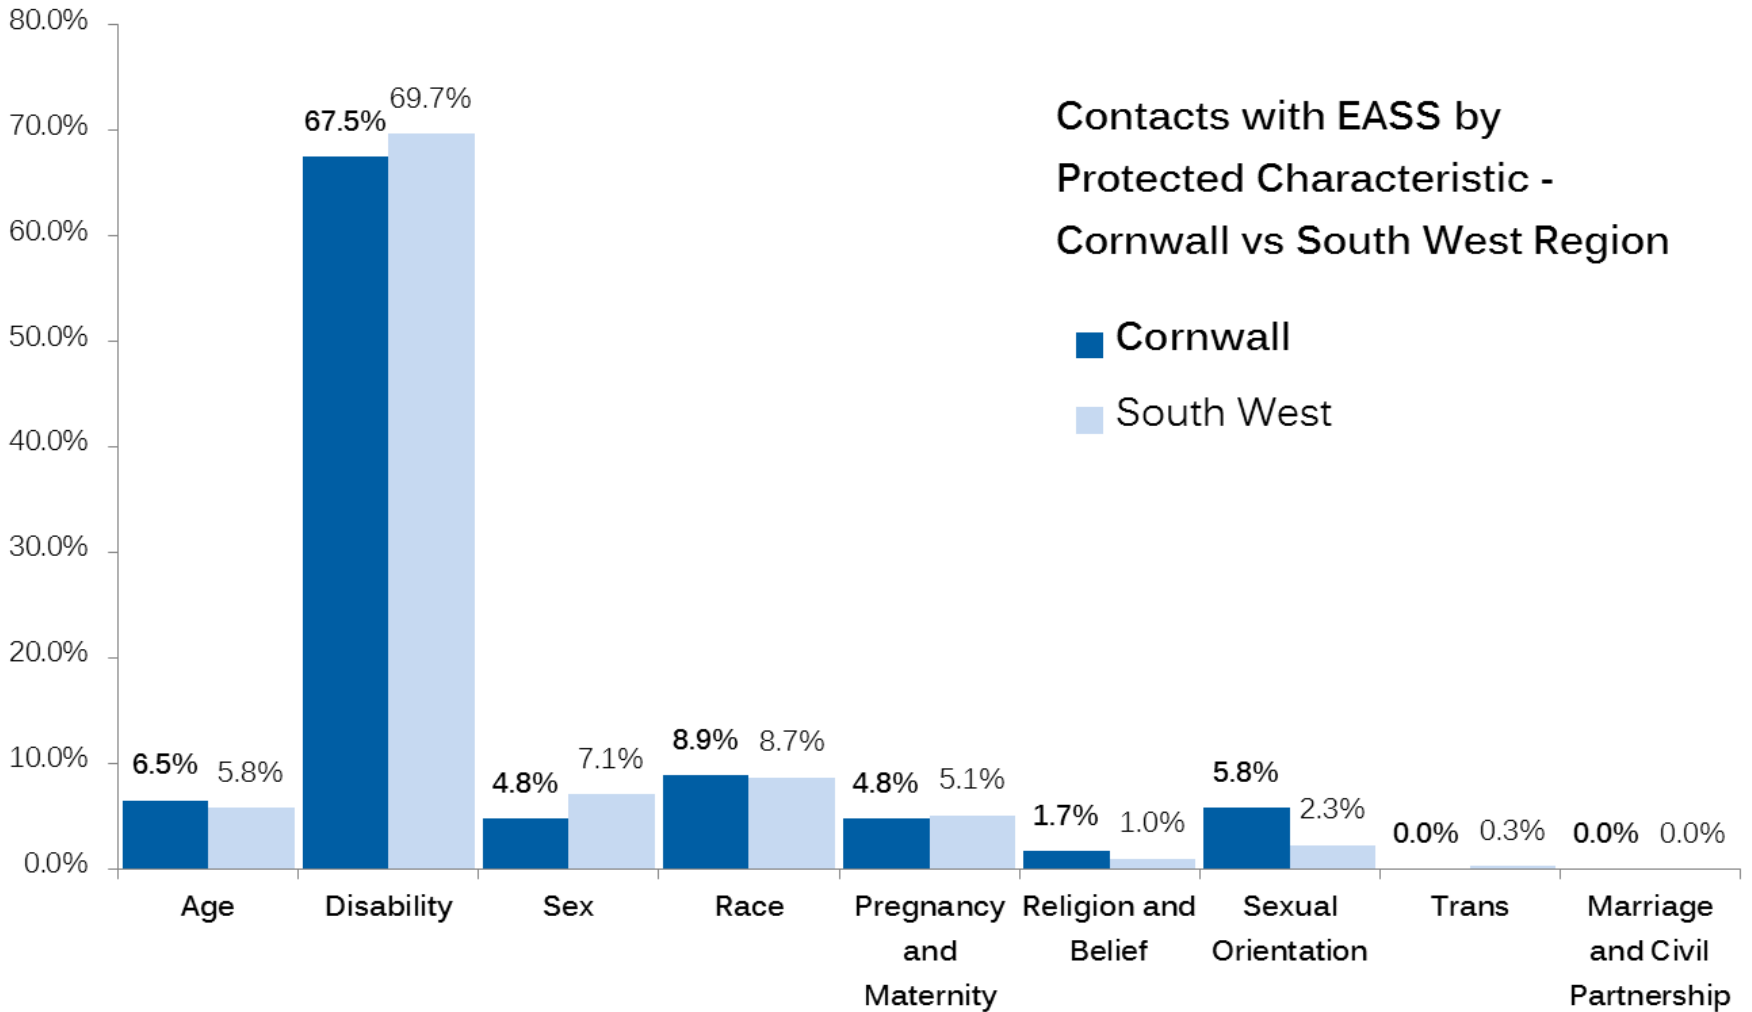

Partner Network

EASS works in partnership with these organisations.
The Equality and Human Rights Commission are a strategic partner and use intelligence from the Helpline so assist evidence gathering

Contacts with EASS (UK wide)

Contacts with EASS by Part of Equality Act for England

Thank you.

Gracias Salamat

شكرا Grazie Спасибо

Diolch Ευχαριστούμε

ਤੁਹਾਡਾ ਧੰਨਵਾਦ Merci

Dziękujemy Kiitos

Teşekkür Ederim

WORKING TOGETHER
ACHIEVING EQUALITY.

EASS

WORKING TOGETHER,
ACHIEVING EQUALITY