All members of principal and local councils have a legal duty under the Localism Act 2011 to register pecuniary interests in the register maintained by the Monitoring Officer for their area. The types of interests that must be registered are prescribed in regulations. Currently those regulations are The Relevant Authorities (Disclosable Pecuniary Interests) Regulations 2012. The Department for Communities and Local Government (DCLG) has also published guidance on interests - 'Openness and transparency on personal interests - A guide for councillors'. This was updated in September 2013 and now indicates that membership of a trade union is a personal interest which should be registered albeit not as a disclosable pecuniary interest. The guidance is available on DCLG's web site - www.communities.gov.uk.

This form reflects both the Regulations and the guidance.

parish/town/city council who will then provide a copy to the Council's Monitoring Officer at Cornwall Council who will arrange for its publication from the Council's website.

The Monitoring Officer for all councils in Cornwall is the Monitoring Officer of Cornwall Council.

Notification of interests to the Monitoring Officer must be in writing but notifications by e-mail will be accepted. Members of local councils should notify their Clerk at the same time as notifying the Monitoring Officer.

Once an interest lapses or you otherwise no longer have it, the interest should be removed from your register. You will need to notify the Monitoring Officer and, where appropriate, your Clerk when this happens.

Public access to the register – the Monitoring Officer is required to make the register of interests available for inspection at a place in Cornwall at all reasonable hours and to publish it on the Cornwall Council web site. This relates to the register for members of local councils as well as Cornwall Council. Local councils are also required to publish the register of interests for their members on their web site if they have one. Cornwall Council will make the register available at the address below.
