Foreword from young people

'You need to read this offer because it tells you what you are entitled to and who is there to help. Young people need to know what happens when they get to 16yrs and this offer will help you to understand more'

Foreword from the Lead Member

The heart of this offer is about asking, “Would this be good enough for my own child”.

Becoming an adult and leaving home is hard for all young people, even with the support of their parents and carers. We’ve listened to what you think is helpful to you and will continue to do so.

I am looking forward to developing the support we offer you to give you the best chance in life.

Our Offer is related to your age and needs. Our general principle is that 16-17 year old young people are likely to need the most help and that 21-25 year olds are likely to be more independent and need less help.

However, we will listen to you carefully so that we understand your individual needs.

Our Offer is set out below for 16-17 year olds, 18-20 year olds and 21-25 year olds
The Principles of Our Commitment to you

The Children and Social Work Bill 2017 says that we should publish our Offer to you as care leavers. Our Offer must make clear what we will provide to you.

We are also extending our Offer to 21-25 year olds

The Principles of our Commitment to you is based on:

✓ We will listen to you and do what we can to help you to realise your ambitions from life, making our Offer personal to you.

✓ We will involve you in shaping services and how they are delivered through representation on the Corporate Parent Managers and Corporate Parenting Boards, which oversee our Offer.

✓ We will do everything we can so that your PA can form a long-term relationship with you.

✓ Part of your PA’s job is to support you to improve your physical and emotional health and wellbeing.

✓ We will support you to feel safe and secure, including managing your money.

✓ We will support you to stay in touch with the people who are important to you and who have your wellbeing at heart.

✓ We will work with other agencies and the wider Council, such as our Housing colleagues, to improve their understanding of your needs and to ensure you are given appropriate priority.

✓ We will work with our Housing colleagues to support you to find suitable accommodation in your preferred area and support you to keep your accommodation.

✓ We will do everything we can to support you to access education, training and employment.

✓ We will keep in touch with you up to your 25th birthday.

Who is the Offer for?

Definitions of Care Leavers under the Children (Leaving Care) Act 2000

An Eligible care leaver is someone who is 16/17 years old and has been in care for 13 weeks since their 14\(^{th}\) birthday although this does not have to be a single continuous period of care. They also have been in care after their 16\(^{th}\) birthday and are still in care.

A Relevant care leaver is someone who has previously been Eligible; is 16/17 years old but has left care.

A Former Relevant care leaver is someone who at 18-21 years old was previously Eligible or Relevant.

The extended duty applies to a Former Relevant person who is continuing / returning to the service and is 21-25 years old.

A Qualifying young person is someone who has not been in care for 13 weeks since their 14\(^{th}\) birthday but has been in care aged 16/17 years old. Qualifying also applies to specific groups e.g. previously private fostered until 16 years old.

Have your say

You have a right to have your say if you are not happy about something. Although you have left care you are still entitled to let children’s social services know if you are not happy and, if necessary, to make a complaint if you are not satisfied with the support you are getting, or feel that you have not been listened to. You also have the right to have an advocate who can help you do this.
We know and understand that leaving care is a difficult time for many young people. It can be scary and feel like you are now all alone. Through this offer we are trying to make sure that you feel more prepared and have been helped to get into a situation where you feel supported, stable and independent enough to manage your life.

We want to tell you that you are not alone. Leaving Care PAs are available to you so you can ask questions, get advice and talk to someone that understands. We want you to feel supported and able to tell us if you feel that you are not.

You are important to us. Even when you have moved on we will still think of you and be there for you if you need us.
