Exploring creativity

Do You

- Play a musical instrument (or would you like to start)?
- Enjoy acting, directing or helping to put on plays?
- Dance?
- Study any of the performing arts?
- Simply enjoy listening to music?

Then we can help you to make the most of your interest!

The Performing Arts Collection

A comprehensive collection of books for loan on all aspects of music is housed at St Austell Library.

Topics include biographies and critical studies of composers and musicians, the history and theory of both classical and popular music and musical instruments and how to play them.

Music

Music scores - Whether you want an orchestral score, a songbook or a selection of music for whichever musical instrument you play, our scores range, classical to jazz from film music to the latest hits.

Beginners and intermediates - A wide selection of music specifically for those just starting out, and to help take you further

Junior music - A selection of music and songs from Disney to Dahl and beyond.

Drama

Play Scripts - A wide range of classic and modern plays, including TV & film scripts, from Brecht to Mamet to Shakespeare.

Junior Playsets - Including the BFG, The Snow Queen, and His Dark Materials

Books - Performance, technique, directing and theatre history, along with sound, lighting and costume design.

Audition Material - We have a selection of books specifically for audition monologues.

Performance sets

Orchestral sets & Vocal scores

Whether you are a group of enthusiasts, a school or an amateur music society, we have a wide range of music sets at the Performing Arts Collection in Cornwall.

You can check titles we have available at

Music Scores

Our Music sets/scores service provides printed music for the smallest informal groups to the largest amateur music societies.

Our wide range of vocal scores includes

- Sacred works including masses, oratorios, anthems and spiritual works
- Popular shows
- Operas and Operetta

Groups and societies can borrow music sets and score using a Performing Arts card. You will need one person to be responsible for loans and enquiries.
