

Anti-Social Behaviour Crime & Policing Act 2014*Cornwall Council Public Space Protection (Dogs on Beaches) Order 2020

Cornwall Council hereby makes the following Order:

1. The Order comes into force on 13 April 2020 for a period of 3 years
2. This Order applies to the land specified and during the periods specified in Schedules 1 to 3

This Order revokes the following Orders under the Clean Neighbourhood and Environment Act 2005 whereby the land in which is applied by this Order is set out in Schedules 1 to 3;

Cornwall Council Public Space Protection (Dogs on Beaches) Orders of 13 April 2017

Offence

3. A person in charge of a dog shall be guilty of an offence if, during the time periods specified in Schedules 1 to 3, a person takes a dog onto, or permits the dog to enter or to remain on, any land to which this Order applies unless:
  - (a) one has a reasonable excuse for doing so; or
  - (b) the owner, occupier or other person or authority having control of the land has consented (generally or specifically) to his doing so.

A person who habitually has a dog in his possession shall be taken to be the person in charge of the dog at any time.

Exemptions

4. This Order does not apply to any person who:
  - (a) is registered as a blind person in a register compiled under Section 29 or the National Assistance Act 1948; or
  - (b) is deaf, in respect of a dog trained by Hearing Dog for Deaf People and upon which he relies for assistance; or

- (c) has a disability which requires being in charge of an Assistance Dog registered with Assistance Dogs UK and upon which he relies for assistance.

Penalty

- 5. Failure, without a reasonable excuse, to comply with the prohibitions imposed by this Order, as set out above would be a criminal offence.

A person guilty of such an offence, under section 67 of the Act, would be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 (£1,000) on the standard scale

Cornwall Council, at their discretion, may issue a fixed penalty notice in the sum of £100, to a person believed to have committed an offence under this Order thus discharging liability for prosecution.
