

Pop Up Site Information Sheet

The Island, St. Ives, TR26 1PW

Disclaimers

The Particulars are provided as a guide only. The accuracy is not guaranteed and they should not be relied upon for any purpose. They do not form part of any contract.

Location

The island is not really an island at all, but a small, grassy peninsula connected to the mainland making it a lovely place for a walk with great views, with a lookout station and an ancient chapel. Once a promontory fort with a protective ditch and rampart, this jutting piece of land between the harbour and Porthmeor beach provides a useful stopping-off point for migratory birds, making it one of the best autumn sea bird watching sites in Europe.

Description

- Mobile trading pitch within the area outlined red
- No vehicular access
- For the sale of services such as exercise clubs, arts and crafts (no food or drink sales).

Site information

- Situated between porthmeor and porthgwidden beaches, popular with walkers and surfers alike.
- Car parks within walking distance.
- The town and surrounding area provides a wide range of accommodation for visitors from campsites to hotels as well as ample shopping.
- St Ives is renowned for its food and drink offerings as well as its art galleries.

We encourage all applicants to carry out a site inspection as well as to undertake their own investigations and risk/suitability assessments for their planned use.

Terms of Licence

The premises are available by way of a 1 year licence. We refer you to the draft Heads of Terms and draft Licence included in the tender pack.

Services

No services are available.

For more information and frequently asked questions please go to;

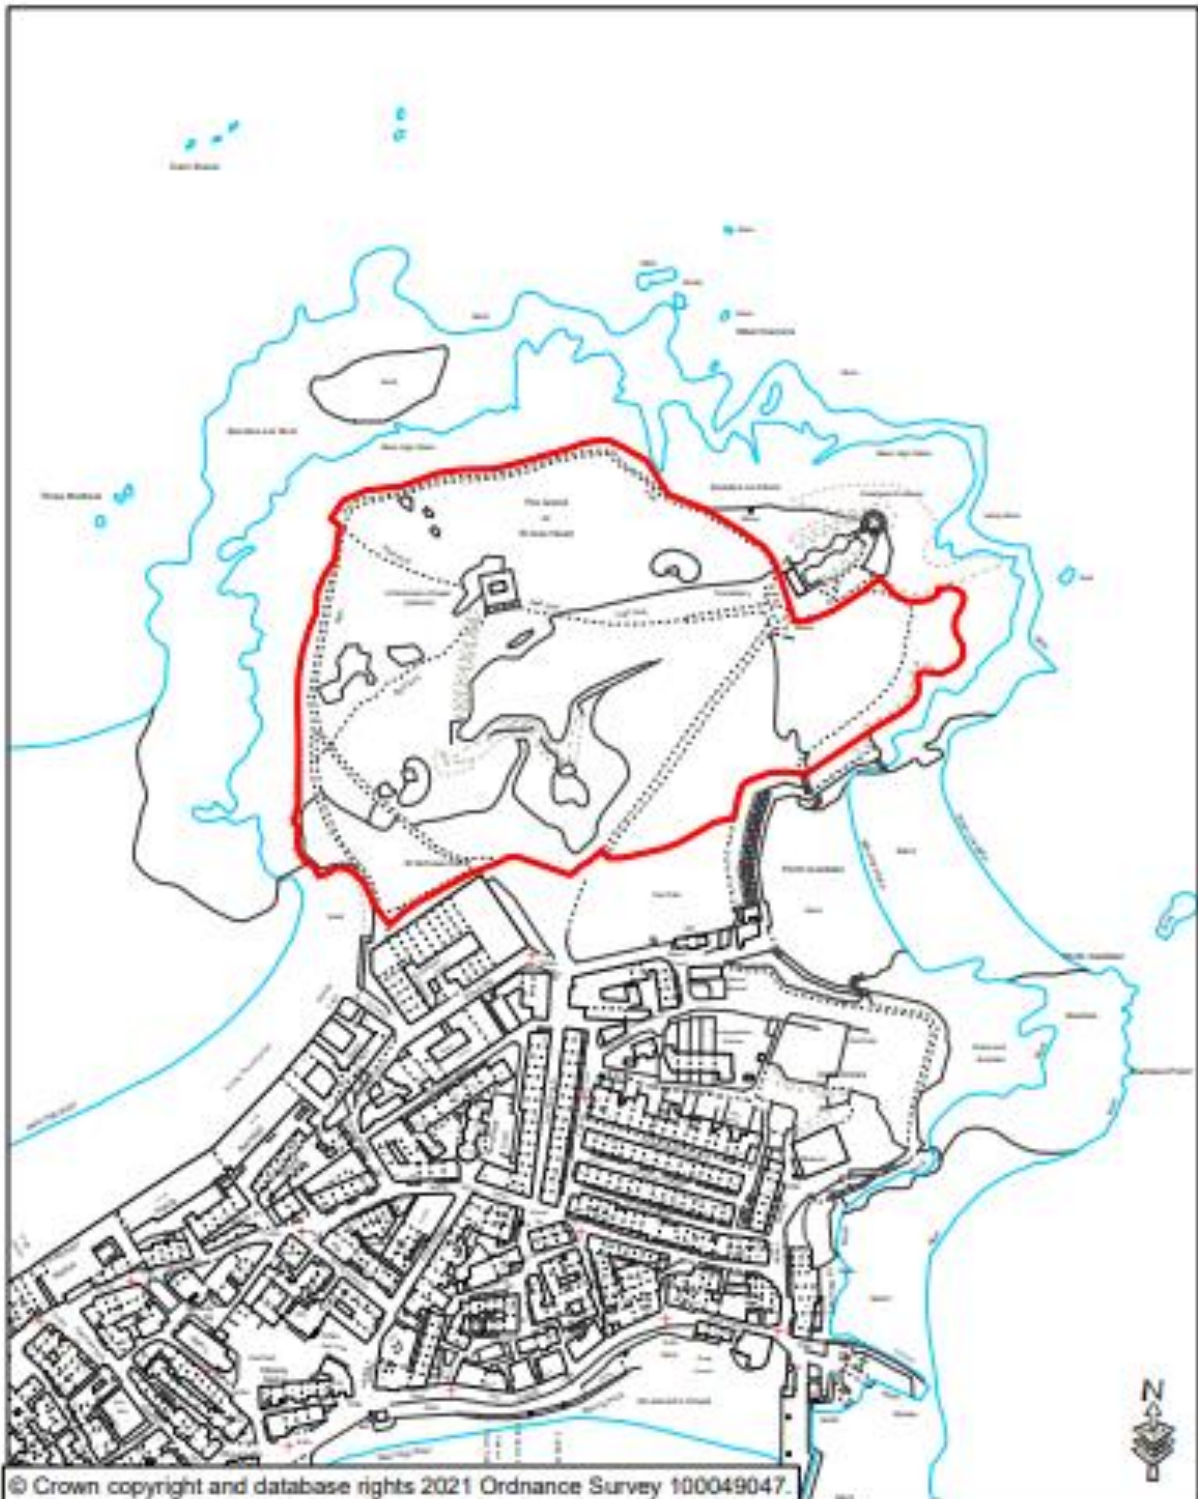

www.cornwall.gov.uk/popupsites

Disclaimers

The Particulars are provided as a guide only. The accuracy is not guaranteed and they should not be relied upon for any purpose. They do not form part of any contract.

The Island, St Ives

Scale 1:2,500 Paper Size: A4

Disclaimers

The Particulars are provided as a guide only. The accuracy is not guaranteed and they should not be relied upon for any purpose. They do not form part of any contract.