Please read the following notes before completing this form.

For any assistance with completing this form please contact the Clerk to your council if you are a member of a local (town, parish or city) council and for Cornwall Council Members one of the Monitoring Officer's staff by email at corporate&infogov@cornwall.gov.uk or you can leave a message on 01872 322704.

You should refer to your Council's Code of Conduct for further information on interests and your obligations.

Interest type:	Employment, etc.
What the regulations say:	Any employment, office, trade, profession or vocation carried on for profit or gain.
What this means:	The job or other means by which you, your spouse, civil partner, etc. make your living, whether employed or self-employed. You need to mention all jobs, businesses, offices, trades or professions for which payment is or should be made. It does not include any voluntary work for which you are not paid or reimbursed, whether for your time or otherwise. For instance, you might enter " Teacher at Bash Street School " or " Manager of ACME Tools Limited " with the address of the place at which you work, run a business, etc.
Interests:	NONE - RETIRED

Interest type:	Sponsorship
What the regulations say:	Any payment or provision of any other financial benefit (other than from the relevant authority) made or provided within the relevant period in respect of any expenses incurred by the member in carrying out duties as a member, or towards the election expenses of the member. This includes any payment or financial benefit from a trade union within the meaning of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992.
What this means:	Any money, whether in cash or otherwise, or any financial benefit, such as the remission of monies you would otherwise have been required to pay or something else representing a financial benefit if any of these relate to your election expenses or your expenses in carrying out your duties as a member, so far as received in the 12 months ending with the day on which you register the payment or benefit. You will need to state what the payment or benefit was, from whom it was received (including any trade union) and what it related to. It does not include such of the above as have been received from the council you are a member of so, for example, you will not need to register expenses and allowances received from your council in your capacity as a member. This part of the form does not apply to your spouse, civil partner etc. If they are a member or co-opted member of a council they will have to disclose the information on their own register form.
Interests:	NONE

Interest type:	Contracts
What the regulations say:	Any contract which is made between the relevant person (or a body in which the relevant person has a beneficial interest) and the relevant authority: (a) under which goods or services are to be provided or works are to be executed; and (b) which has not been fully discharged.
What this means:	'Contract' has the usual meaning and it includes any contract between (1) the council of which you are a member and (2) you, your spouse, civil partner etc., a firm in which you, your spouse, civil partner etc. are a partner or an incorporated entity (e.g. a company) of which you, your spouse, civil partner etc. are a director or in the securities* of which you, your spouse or civil partner etc. have a beneficial interest. The contract will relate to the provision of goods and services and there will still be obligations to be performed by one or more of the parties to the contract. Such contracts might relate to, e.g. carrying out works to your council's premises, providing your council with stationery or computers or receiving goods or services from your council. * 'securities' means shares, debentures, debenture stock, loan stock, bonds, units of a collective investment scheme within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and other securities of any description, other than money deposited with a building society.
