Location

Tehidy Country Park is the largest woodland in West Cornwall, managed as a Country Park. It has over 9 miles of paths and 250 acres of woods and lakes to explore. The park provides a recreational route for walkers, runners, cyclists and horse riders, with easy access to the South West Coast Path. The pop up site is an exciting opportunity to provide additional services to the North end of the park, the car park is free and very often full all year round.

Description

- Mobile concession anywhere within the car park in the area outlined red on the attached plan.
- Car park on first come basis so the trader will need to arrive early to secure a place.
- Size: 5m x 3m
- Suitable for the sale of icecreams, hot and cold drinks, snacks, cycle hire and other goods.

Site information

- Nationally recognised multi use trail, and South West Coast Path easily accessible.
- Local town of Porthreath very popular tourist destination, and adjacent coastal road between St Agnes and St Ives popular tourist route..
- The access to the over flow car park and access gate into the woodland must be maintained at all times for for Emergency Services.

We encourage all applicants to carry out a site inspection as well as to undertake their own investigations and risk/suitability assessments for their planned use.
