

ROUTES AND FLOWERS

We can make the land either side of the road more attractive and friendly to wildlife and people. We will be building Cornish hedges and banks of wildflowers along the roadside.

WHEN THE ROAD IS BUILT IT COULD:

- Link up wild spaces and increase the wildlife that use them
- Create new environments that local people can use
- Celebrate local culture and natural heritage, from its geology to the changing seasons

